Ellen Kort Peace Park

Objective #1 - Telling a Story with Landscape

The Ellen Kort Peace Park contains a number of spaces: a Pond Garden, Nature Garden, Circle Garden, gathering areas, Peace Ring, Circle Garden, and the proposed Peace Garden for a city-wide multi-use trail. The Pond Garden is surrounded by the Circle Garden, which contains a seating area and the Peace Ring. The Peace Ring is surrounded by a circular path, which is accessible to the Circle Garden.

What makes the Ellen Kort Peace Park unique is its location in the heart of Appleton, Wisconsin, near the historic Appleton River. The park is designed to be a peaceful and serene space, with seating areas and pathways for visitors to enjoy the natural beauty of the area. The park is also accessible to the Appleton River, providing a peaceful and tranquil environment for visitors to enjoy the outdoors.
